G 11.4.9.

With a view to provide facilities to the public to obtain first-hand information of all important decisions of Government on matters of general interest, it has been laid down from time to time, and latterly in G.O. No.G4320-61-G.M.174-07-4, dated 24th January 1908, that such orders should be placed on the Press Table ~~and also reproduced in the Gazette.~~ A special portion of the Gazette (PartVI) was allotted for the ~~purpose in ordering a revision of the arrangement of matter in the Gazette.~~ publication of important orders (Vide G.O. No. G. 10715-65 / G.Sn. 114-15-3 dated 31st January 1916.)

Instances of omission in this respect having come to notice, Secretaries to Government are requested to see that copies of all Government orders of general interest are invariably placed at the disposal of the Press and also simultaneously sent to the Compiler, Mysore Gazette, for publication in the Gazette. The more important of them are to be translated into Kannada without delay & published in the Kannada Edition of the Gazette for the subsequent week.
